SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of: TWENTY-THREE (23) MONTHS.

☒ Special Conditions:

- 1) The defendant shall submit to periodic urine surveillance and/or breath, saliva and skin tests for the detection of drug abuse as directed by the probation officer. The offender may incur costs associated with such detection efforts, based on ability to pay as determined by the probation officer.
- 2) The defendant shall participate in an assessment or a program, inpatient or outpatient, for the treatment of drug and/or alcohol addiction, dependency or abuse which may include, but not be limited to urine, breath, saliva and skin testing to determine whether the offender has reverted to the use of drugs and/or alcohol. Further, the offender shall participate as instructed by the probation officer and shall comply with all rules and regulations of the treatment agency until discharged by the Program Director with the approval of the probation officer. The offender shall further submit to such drug-detection techniques, in addition to those performed by the treatment agency, as directed by the probation officer. The offender may incur costs associated with such drug/alcohol detection and treatment, based upon the ability to pay, as determined by the probation officer.
- 3) The defendant shall participate in a mental health evaluation and comply with any treatment consistent with the findings of said evaluation, as directed by the Probation Office. The offender may incur costs associated with such program, based on ability to pay as determined by the probation officer.

Additionally, the Court added a special condition:

- 4) The defendant shall submit his person, house, residence, vehicle(s), papers, [computers (as defined by 18 U.S.C. Section 1030(e)(1)) or other electronic communications or data storage devices or media], business or place of employment, and any other property under the offender's control to a search, conducted by a United States Probation Officer at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to a search in accordance with this condition may be grounds for revocation. The offender shall warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.

For offenses committed on or after September 13, 1994: The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.

- ☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse. (Check, if applicable.)
- ☐ The defendant shall register with the state sex offender registration agency in the state where the defendant resides, works, is a student, as directed by the probation officer. (Check, if applicable.)
- ☐ The defendant shall participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (Check, if applicable.)
- ☒ The defendant shall not possess a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or any other dangerous weapon. (Check, if applicable.)

If this judgment imposes a fine or restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such fine or restitution that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release in accordance with the Schedule of Payments set forth in the Criminal Monetary Penalties sheet of this judgment. The defendant must report to the probation office in the district to which the defendant is released within 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.

The defendant shall not commit another federal, state or local crime.

The defendant shall not illegally possess a controlled substance.

The defendant shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court.

The defendant shall also comply with the additional conditions on the attached page.
